Making “A Change” through Comprehensive Community Development
The ACHANGE 2013 Public Policy Symposium

June 11, 2013, 9:00 am — 4:30 pm

Housing is no longer a solo event.

Transforming communities will take more than just affordable housing. Successful transformation requires a comprehensive community development strategy. Join ACHANGE as we explore the strategies, projects, programs and policies that contribute to effective development.

Highlights of the Day:

- Policy agendas that promote comprehensive development
- National policy trends and recommendations on supporting affordable housing
- Ways to train members and potential partners on comprehensive development concepts
- ACHANGE’s policy agenda

You are invited to learn about new trends, receive timely updates and share your own experiences. Get involved in public policy!

This year’s featured luncheon speaker is

Tina Brooks, Executive Vice President of Programs, Local Initiatives Support Corporation.

Tina Brooks, LISC Executive Vice President for Programs, is responsible for the successful implementation of LISC’s comprehensive community development strategy across LISC’s 30 urban sites and national rural program. She oversees the activities of LISC’s national support programs and internal knowledge sharing across local and national LISC programs. Tina is also responsible for sharing program innovations and results with partners, funders and policy makers. Learn more about national issues that could impact you!
